ElderCraft®

Supporting a Healthy Immune System

ElderCraft® is a premium extract of European black elderberry, crafted using a proprietary ultrafiltration process and clinically proven to support a healthy immune system.

Health Canada NPN #80092513

IMMUNITY BOOSTER

ElderCraft® supports the immune system and is active against both bacteria and viruses.

CLEAN PROCESS

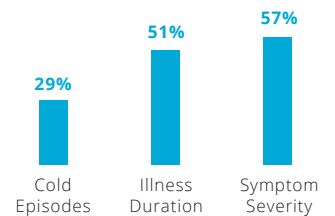

Solvent-free, water extraction retains the taste, flavour and aroma profile of the elderberry.

PROPRIETARY TECHNOLOGY

One-of-a-kind IPT ultrafiltration yields our anthocyanin, polyphenol and high-molecular-weight-fraction-rich extract.

ElderCraft® is an advanced botanical extract manufactured using Austrian black elderberries.

Black elderberry has one of the highest antioxidant capacities of all berries and is widely known for its immune supporting properties.

In a gold-standard clinical study, intercontinental air-travelers who were administered ElderCraft® experienced significant improvements to their upper respiratory health, including a decrease in cold episodes, duration of cold episodes and symptom severity.
